Requested Amendment to the Current Official Plan

- Schedule "A" – to change the land use designation from: "Low Density Residential" to "Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential" to permit a 6 storey, continuum-of-care facility; two 5 storey apartment buildings; and 33 townhouse units
- Section 20.5 (Southwest Area Secondary Plan)
 - o Schedule 4 (Southwest Area Land Use Plan), From "Low Density Residential" to "Multi-Family Medium Density Residential"
 - o Schedule 12 (North Talbot Residential Neighbourhood Land Use Designation) from "Low Density Residential" to "Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential"
- Chapter 10 to add a special policy that would allow the site to develop with reduced setbacks, building heights of 6 storeys, a density of 100 units per hectare, that the front lot line is deemed to be Southdale Road West, and the range of proposed residential uses

Requested Amendment to The London Plan (New Official Plan)

- To change Policy 1535_5. Southwest Area Secondary Plan by changing the following:
 - o Changing the designation, from "Low Density Residential", to "Medium Density Residential"
 - o Changing the designation, from "Low Density Residential" to "Medium Density Residential" on Schedule 12 (North Talbot Residential Neighbourhood Land Use Designations),

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from an Urban Reserve (UR1) Zone and a holding Residential R4 Special Provision (h-56*h-84*R4-6(6) Zone; to a Residential R5 Special Provision/Residential R7 Special Provision/Residential R9 Special Provision ((R5-7())/R7.H20.D100/R9-3()) Zone to allow the proposed development with reduced yard setbacks, increased height, increased density of 100 units per hectare and that the front lot line is deemed to be Southdale Road West. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below. The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca/planapps.

Requested Zoning

- Residential R5 Special Provision (R5-7()) – to permit cluster townhouses with a special provision for a maximum density of 100 units per hectare and that the front lot line is deemed to be Southdale Road West.
- Residential R7 Special Provision (R7*H20.D100) – to permit a continuum-of-care facility with a maximum height of 20m and maximum density of 100 units per hectare and that the front lot line is deemed to be Southdale Road West.
- Residential R9 Special Provision (R9-3()) – to permit apartment buildings with special provisions for a maximum front yard setback of 0 metres, a maximum side yard setback of 4.8m, a maximum building height of 17m, maximum density of 100 units per hectare, and that the front lot line is deemed to be Southdale Road West.

The City is also considering the following amendments:

- Special Provisions in zoning to implement the urban design requirements and considerations of the Southwest Area Secondary Plan,
- Adding holding provisions for the following: urban design, archaeological and public site plan.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as "Low Density Residential" which allows single detached, semi-detached, duplex dwellings and cluster housing at a maximum density of 30 units per hectare as the main permitted uses. These lands are within the Southwest Area Secondary Plan, within the North Talbot Residential Neighbourhood, which includes special polices and direction for development.

The subject lands are in the "Neighbourhoods" Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of housing including single detached, townhouses and low rise apartments.

The site is presently within an Urban Reserve (UR1) Zone and a holding Residential R4 Special Provision (h-56*h-84*R4-6(6) Zone, which permits existing dwellings, agricultural uses except for mushroom farms, commercial greenhouses, livestock facilities and manure storage facilities, conservation lands, managed woodlot, wayside pit, passive recreation use, and street townhouses.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the Official Plan designation and the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below. For more detailed information about the public process, go to the Participating in the Planning Process page at london.ca.

See More Information

You can review additional information and material about this application by:

- visiting Development Services at 300 Dufferin Ave, 6th floor, Monday to Friday between 8:30am and 4:30pm;
- contacting the City's Planner listed on the first page of this Notice; or
- viewing the application-specific page at london.ca/planapps.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Development Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

This request represents residential intensification as defined in the policies of the Official Plan. Under these policies, Development Services staff and the Planning and Environment Committee will also consider detailed site plan matters such as fencing, landscaping, lighting, driveway locations, building scale and design, and the location of the proposed building on the site. We would like to hear your comments on these matters.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Official Plan and zoning changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed official plan amendment and zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
