

Unsolicited Proposals

Submission Form

The City of London welcomes proposals from individuals and organizations that could benefit our community.

The City will consider proposals that:

- Satisfy a City of London need or problem
- Are innovative or unique opportunities to improve service delivery
- Demonstrate significant value or saving, or mitigate risks
- Have significant revenue generation or economic development potential

If you or your organization would like to make a proposal to the City of London, please complete our online form. All proposals will be reviewed by administration, and a response will be provided.

Unsolicited proposals are subject to the City of London's Procurement of Goods and Services Policy.
