Application Details

Requested Draft Plan of Vacant Land Condominium

Consideration of a Draft Plan of Vacant Land Condominium consisting of 20 multiple-attached dwelling units, and a common element for a private access from Southdale Road East, to be registered as one Condominium Corporation.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from a Residential R3 (R3-3) Zone to a Residential R6 (R6-5) Zone. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below. The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca/planapps.

Requested Zoning

Zone(s): Residential R6 (R6-5) Zone to permit single detached dwellings, semi-detached dwellings, duplex dwellings, triplex dwellings, townhouse dwellings, stacked townhouse dwellings, apartment buildings, and fourplex dwellings.

The City may also consider the use of holding provisions for design and servicing, and/or additional special provisions in zoning related to urban design, setbacks and coverage.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. The southern portion of the subject lands are currently designated as "Low Density Residential" which allows single detached, semi-detached, duplex dwellings and cluster housing at a maximum density of 30 units per hectare as the main permitted uses. The northern portion of the subject lands are designated "Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential" which allows multiple-attached dwellings (e.g., row houses, cluster houses), low-rise apartment buildings, rooming and boarding houses, emergency care facilities, converted dwellings, small-scale nursing homes, rest homes and homes for the aged,. Medium density development will not exceed an approximate net density of 75 units per hectare (30 units per acre). Developments which are permitted to exceed the density limit of 75 units per hectare (30 units per acre) shall be limited to a maximum density of 100 units per hectare (40 units per acre). All proposals shall be evaluated on the basis of Section 3.7, Planning Impact Analysis. The lands are within the Southwest Area Secondary Plan, which includes special policies and direction for development, including urban design considerations, pedestrian connections, minimum densities, and incorporating varied housing types.

The subject lands are in the Neighbourhood Place Type Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of low density residential uses which includes single detached, semi-detached, duplex, converted dwellings, townhouses, secondary suites, home occupations, and group homes.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied for a Draft Plan of Vacant Land Condominium and to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Development Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

This request represents residential intensification as defined in the policies of the Official Plan. Under these policies, Development Services staff and the Planning and Environment Committee will also consider detailed site plan matters such as fencing, landscaping, lighting, driveway locations, building scale and design, and the location of the proposed building on the site. We would like to hear your comments on these matters.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Draft Plan of Vacant Land Condominium and zoning changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. Neighbourhood Associations are listed on the Neighbourhood website. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting. The Council Decision will inform the decision of the Director, Development Services, who is the Approval Authority for Draft Plans of Vacant Land Condominium.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council and Approval Authority's Decision

If you wish to be notified of the Approval Authority's decision in respect of the proposed draft plan of vacant land condominium, you must make a written request to the Director, Development Services, City of London, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O.
