Requested Amendment to the Current Official Plan

The City has initiated an Official Plan Amendment to add a Specific Policy Area to permit mixed-use apartment buildings with a maximum building height of 8-storeys and a maximum permitted density of 233 units per hectare within the Auto-Oriented Commercial Corridor designation. The intent is to align the 1989 Official Plan as it applies to these lands, with the policies of The London Plan, the new Official Plan for the City of London.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from an Office Special Provision (OF5(2)) Zone to a Business District Commercial Special Provision Bonus (BDC(_)*B-_) Zone. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below. The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca/planapps.

Current Zoning

Zone: Office Special Provision (OF5(2)) Zone

Permitted Uses: clinics; day care centres; laboratories; medical/dental offices/ offices, pharmacies, restaurants eat-in, and retail.

Special Provisions: Additional Permitted Uses: Retail Stores each having a maximum gross floor area of 500 square metres (5,382 square feet) may occur on the ground floor of a building containing offices. Regulation: Gross Floor Area - Pharmacy in a stand alone (Maximum) building with a gross floor area of 1000 square metres (10,764 square feet) maximum.

Requested Zoning

Zone: Business District Commercial Special Provision Bonus (BDC(_)*B-_) Zone

Permitted Uses: Animal hospitals; apartment buildings, with any or all of the other permitted uses on the first floor; bake shops; clinics; commercial recreation establishments; commercial parking structures and/or lots; converted dwellings; day care centres; dry cleaning and laundry depots; duplicating shops; emergency care establishments; existing dwellings; financial institutions; grocery stores; laboratories; Laundromats; libraries; medical/dental offices; offices; personal service establishments; private clubs; restaurants; retail stores; service and repair establishments; studios; video rental establishments; lodging house class 2; cinemas; brewing on premise establishment; food store; animal clinic; convenience store; post office; convenience service establishments; dwelling units restricted to the rear portion of the ground floor or on the second floor or above with any or all of the other permitted uses in the front portion of the ground floor; bed and breakfast establishments; antique store; police stations; artisan workshop; craft brewery.

Special Provisions: Identify the Commissioners Road East frontage as the front lot line; permit a minimum interior side yard setback of 0.8 metres, whereas 14 metres is required; permit a minimum rear yard depth of 1.1 metres, whereas 14 metres is required; a minimum parking rate of 1 space per residential unit, whereas 1.25 spaces per unit is required; and a minimum parking rate of 1 space per 20 square metres of non-residential gross floor area, whereas 1 per 15 square metres of gross floor area is required.

Bonus Zone: A maximum building height of 8-storeys and a maximum mixed-use density of 233 units per hectare.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as Auto-Oriented Commercial Corridor in the Official Plan, which permits commercial uses that cater to the commercial needs of the travelling public as the main uses.

The subject lands are in the Urban Corridor Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of residential, retail, service, office, cultural, institutional, hospitality, entertainment, recreational, and other related uses.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the Official Plan designation and the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below. For more detailed information about the public process, go to the Participating in the Planning Process page at london.ca.

Please also note that this application is being circulated during the State of Emergency issued by the Province of Ontario. As a result, in-person services are not available at this time.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Development Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Official Plan and zoning changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed official plan amendment and zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
