Application Details

Requested Draft Plan of Subdivision

Consideration of a Draft Plan of Subdivision consisting of 169 single detached dwellings, four (4) medium density blocks for street townhouses, one (1) park block, two (2) Urban Reserve blocks for future review and residential development, and one (1) future road block all serviced by the extension of Frontier Avenue, Regiment Road and Raleigh Boulevard and three (3) new local streets.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from a Urban Reserve (UR3) Zone to a Residential R2 Special Provision (R2-3(_)) Zone and Residential R4 (R4-4) Zone. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below.

The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca.

Requested Zoning (Please refer to attached map)

Zone(s):

- Residential R2 Special Provision (R2-3(_)) Zone (Lots 1-169) - to permit single detached dwellings, semi-detached dwellings and duplex dwellings with a minimum lot area of 370m² for single detached dwellings. Special provisions to permit a minimum lot frontage of 11 metres, minimum front yard setback for main dwelling of 3.0 metres, minimum front yard depth for garages of 5.5 metres, minimum interior side yard depth of 1.2 metres except where there is no attached garage, then 3.0 metre is required on one side and a lot coverage of 45% except that any unenclosed porch shall not be included in the calculation of lot coverage; and
- Residential R4 (R4-4) Zone - to permit street townhouse dwellings with a minimum lot frontage of 5.5m and minimum lot area of 180m².

The City may also consider special provisions in zoning to implement the urban design requirements and considerations of the Southwest Area Secondary Plan and adding holding provisions for the following: urban design, water looping, municipal services, and phasing.

An Environmental Impact Study has been prepared to assist in the evaluation of this application.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as Low Density Residential, Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential and Open Space in the 1989 Official Plan, which permits a range of residential uses from single detached dwellings up to low-rise apartment buildings, while the Open Space designation is applied to lands which are to be maintained as park space or in a natural state subject to further review.

The subject lands are in the Neighbourhood Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of low density residential uses which includes single detached, semi-detached, duplex, converted dwellings, townhouses, secondary suites, home occupations, and group homes.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied for a Draft Plan of Subdivision and to change the Official Plan designation and the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Development Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Draft Plan of Subdivision and zoning changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. Neighbourhood Associations are listed on the Neighbourgood website. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting. The Council Decision will inform the decision of the Director, Development Services, who is the Approval Authority for Draft Plans of Subdivision.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council and Approval Authority's Decision

If you wish to be notified of the Approval Authority's decision in respect of the proposed draft plan of subdivision, you must make a written request to the Director, Development Services, City of London, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London ON N6A 4L9, or at developmentsservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you provide written comments, or make a written request to the City of London for conditions of draft approval to be included in the Decision.

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed official plan and/or zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the City of London in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the approval authority gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of the Director, Development Services to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the City of London in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the approval authority gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed official plan amendment is adopted, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
