Application Details

Requested Amendment to The London Plan (New Official Plan)

An Official Plan Amendment to The London Plan to add a Specific Policy to permit a single-storey building within the Main Street Place Type and to add the site to Map 7 – Specific Policy Areas was previously requested. However, the proposed development has since been revised and a Specific Policy is no longer required.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from a Holding Business District Commercial Special Provision (h*BDC2(4)) Zone and a Business District Commercial Special Provision (BDC2(3)) Zone to a Business District Commercial Special Provision (BDC2(_)) Zone. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below.

The Zoning By-law is available at london.ca.

Current Zoning

Zone: Holding Business District Commercial Special Provision (h*BDC2(4)) Zone and a Business District Commercial Special Provision (BDC2(3)) Zone

Permitted Uses: Apartment buildings with any or all of the other permitted uses on the first floor, dwelling units restricted to the rear portion of the ground floor or on the second floor or above with any or all of the other permitted uses in the front portion on the ground floor, and a broad range of retail, service, office, recreation, entertainment, institutional and community uses

Special Provisions: Notwithstanding the regulations of Section 25.3 of the By-law, the maximum front yard depth requirement shall not apply within this zone

Residential Density: See Height below

Height: 12.0 metres. The height and density of each apartment building over the standard zone height and/or containing units outside existing structures, will be established through a zoning by-law amendment application

Requested Zoning

Zone: Business District Commercial Special Provision (BDC2(_))

Permitted Uses: Apartment buildings with any or all of the other permitted uses on the first floor, dwelling units restricted to the rear portion of the ground floor or on the second floor or above with any or all of the other permitted uses in the front portion on the ground floor, and a broad range of retail, service, office, recreation, entertainment, institutional and community uses

Special Provisions: Add stacked townhouse dwellings to the list of permitted uses; maintain the existing special provision exempting the site from the maximum 3.0m front yard depth (South Carriage Road); permit a maximum mixed-use density of 65 units per hectare; permit an increased maximum building height of 14.5m, whereas a maximum of 12.0m is permitted; and to permit parking in the front yard, whereas parking in the front yard is not permitted.

Residential Density: 65 units per hectare

Height: 14.5 metres

The City may also consider a different base zone, the use of holding provisions, and/or additional special provisions.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are designated as Main Street Commercial Corridor in the 1989 Official Plan, which permits small-scale retail uses, service and repair establishments, food stores, convenience commercial uses, personal and business services, pharmacies, restaurants, financial institutions, small scale offices, small scale entertainment uses, galleries, studios, community facility, residential uses (including secondary uses) and units created through the conversion of existing buildings, or through the development of mixed-use buildings as the main uses.

The subject lands are in the Main Street Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a broad range of residential, retail, service, office and institutional uses.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the public meeting notice in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. If you previously provided written or verbal comments about this application, we have considered your comments as part of our review of the application and in the preparation of the planning report and recommendation to the Planning and Environment Committee. The additional ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below.

See More Information

You can review additional information and material about this application by:

- Contacting the City's Planner listed on the first page of this Notice; or
- Viewing the application-specific page at london.ca/planapps
- Opportunities to view any file materials in-person by appointment can be arranged through the file Planner.

Attend This Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested zoning changes at this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. Neighbourhood Associations are listed on the Neighbourgood website. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Clerk of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Ontario Land Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

For more information go to <https://olt.gov.on.ca/appeals-process/forms/>.

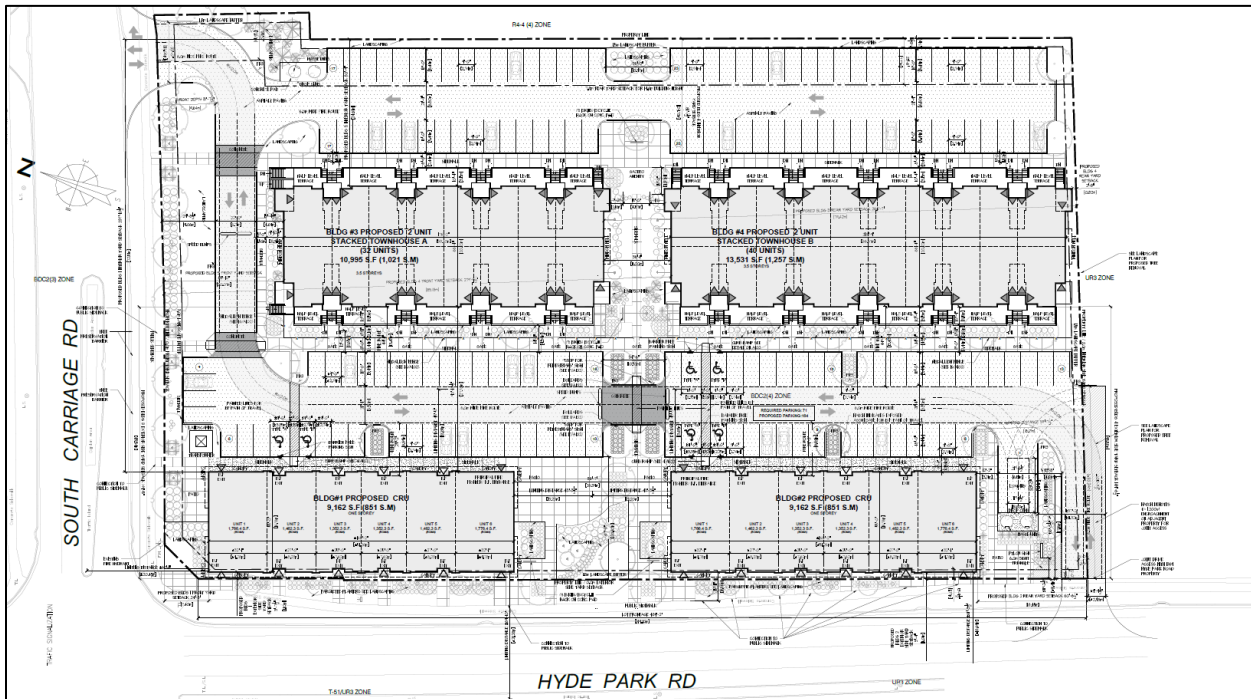

Notice of Collection of Personal Information

Personal information collected and recorded at the Public Participation Meeting, or through written submissions on this subject, is collected under the authority of the Municipal Act, 2001, as amended, and the Planning Act, 1990 R.S.O. 1990, c.P.13 and will be used by Members of Council and City of London staff in their consideration of this matter. The written submissions, including names and contact information and the associated reports arising from the public participation process, will be made available to the public, including publishing on the City's website. Video recordings of the Public Participation Meeting may also be posted to the City of London's website. Questions about this collection should be referred to Evelina Skalski, Manager, Records and Information Services 519-661-CITY (2489) ext. 5590.

Accessibility

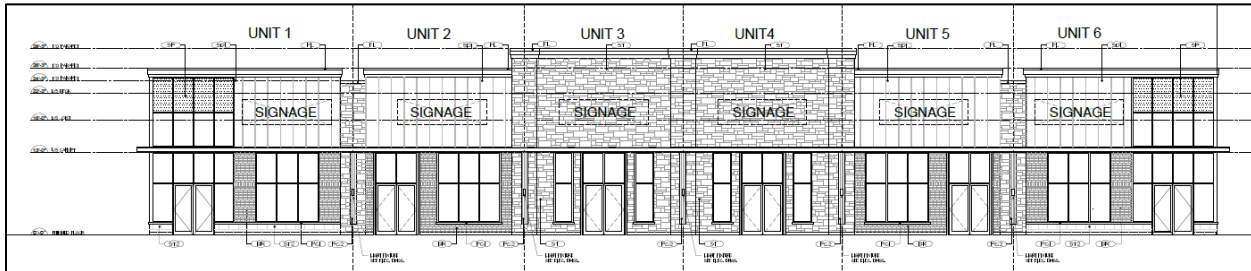

The City of London is committed to providing accessible programs and services for supportive and accessible meetings. We can provide you with American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation, live captioning, magnifiers and/or hearing assistive (t coil) technology. Please contact us at plandev@london.ca by October 16, 2023 to request any of these services.
