Application Details

Requested Draft Plan of Subdivision

Applicant has requested revisions to the western extent of the subdivision which is proposed to be setback 10m from the woodland. The applicant has also revised the application to remove the proposed extension of Savoy Street and terminate it with a cul-de-sac.

Consideration of a Draft Plan of Subdivision consisting of one (1) multi-family residential block and one (1) reserve block served by one (1) public road. The development is conceptually planned with one (1) cluster townhouse dwelling block with 207 units. Access to the medium density block is proposed to be provided from a cul-de-sac at the end of an extension to Savoy Street, and from the future extension of Hayward Drive.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from an Urban Reserve (UR4) Zone to a Residential R5/R6 (R5-4/R6-5) Zone for the west portion of Block 1, Residential R5/R6/R8/R9 (R5-4()/R6-5()/R8-4()•D100•H32/R9-3()•H32) Zone on the majority of Block 1. The proposed zoning regulations would also permit a total of approximately 375 dwelling units comprised of 350 apartment dwelling units, and 25 cluster townhouse units. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below.

The Official Plans and the Zoning By-law are available at london.ca.

An Environmental Impact Study has been prepared to assist in the evaluation of this application.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. The subject lands are in the Neighbourhoods Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of low to medium density residential uses as well as mixed-use and commercial uses at appropriate locations to meet the daily needs of neighbourhood residents. The subject lands are also located within the Southwest Area Secondary Plan and are designated as Low Density Residential and Medium Density Residential in the Bostwick Residential Neighbourhood. The Low Density Residential designation permits residential development up to 40 units per hectare and a maximum height of four storeys. The Medium Density Residential designation with frontage on Bostwick Road permits residential development up to 100 units per hectare and a maximum height of nine storeys.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied for a Draft Plan of Subdivision and to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below.

See More Information

You can review additional information and material about this application by:

- Contacting the City's Planner listed on the first page of this Notice; or
- Viewing the application-specific page at london.ca/planapps
- Opportunities to view any file materials in-person by appointment can be arranged through the file Planner.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Planning & Development staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Draft Plan of Subdivision and Zoning By-Law Amendment on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. Neighbourhood Associations are listed on the Neighbourgood website. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting. The Council Decision will inform the decision of the Director, Planning & Development, who is the Approval Authority for Draft Plans of Subdivision.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council and Approval Authority's Decision

If you wish to be notified of the Approval Authority's decision in respect of the proposed draft plan of subdivision, you must make a written request to the Director, Planning & Development, City of London, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London ON N6A 4L9, or at plandev@london.ca. You will also be notified if you provide written comments, or make a written request to the City of London for conditions of draft approval to be included in the Decision.

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Clerk of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Ontario Land Tribunal

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the City of London in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the approval authority gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of the Director, Planning & Development to the Ontario Land Tribunal.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the City of London in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the approval authority gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the proposed zoning by-law amendment is adopted, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
